PATRICIA JOYCE BELLANGER

This investigation is based on information which indicates the subject is engaged in activities which could involve a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2383 (Rebellion or Insurrection) or 2384 (Seditious Conspiracy), as indicated hereafter. The subject has been identified as being actively involved in militant activities of the American Indian Movement (AIM). Since January, 1973, AIM has been actively involved in demonstrations and violent confrontations with local authorities in Scottsbluff, Nebraska, and the Rapid City and Custer areas of South Dakota. From February 27 through May 8, 1973, AIM leaders and members and their supporters occupied the community of Wounded Knee, South Dakota, by force of arms taking a number of the community's residents as hostages. Before surrendering to Federal authorities, they engaged in numerous violent and destructive acts and gunfire was exchanged with Federal authorities resulting in the death of two of the insurgents.

The American Indian Movement (AIM) was founded in Minnesota in 1968, dedicated to improving conditions for the American Indian. AIM led and participated in confrontations with local authorities in Scottsbluff, Nebraska, and the Rapid City - Custer areas of South Dakota. AIM led the takeover and occupation of Wounded Knee, South Dakota, in February - May, 1973.

Sources whose identities are concealed herein have furnished reliable information in the past, except where otherwise noted.

Information set forth in the aforementioned communications indicates that while both subjects are affiliated with the American Indian Movement (AIM), their activities with that organization have not proven to be militant nor have they involved themselves in activities of a violent nature or in possible violations of Federal statutes.

Accordingly, submission by your office of communications suitable for dissemination in these matters was unnecessary. You have indicated in the case of subject [redacted] that your office intends to follow her activities for a period of six months to determine her possible propensity for violence. You are instructed to close that case at this time.

NOTE:

The AIM is a militant organization with headquarters in the Minneapolis Division. AIM has been involved in acts of violence including the February, 1973, take-over of the community of Wounded Knee, South Dakota. Appropriate instructions are being directed to the Minneapolis Office in light of their submission of communications for dissemination setting forth investigative results of individuals determined not to be violent affiliates of AIM. In the case of [REDACTED] Minneapolis improperly maintained same in a pending status despite the fact that this is unnecessary based on its prior findings. Case on Patricia Ballanger was closed by Minneapolis.
